we need to stop focusing on lowering cholesterol and start focusing on preventing heart disease the availability, distribution and abuse of powdered and crack cocaine is a growing problem throughout the state of new hampshire